TRAIN ROBBERS

Two Men Get $4,000 on a Central of Georgia Train.

TOM COLE HANGED TODAY

Judge Black, of Barbourville, Will Likely Succeed Judge Tinsley.

MR. SHAW IS VERY SICK

ANOTHER TRAIN ROBBERY. Macon, Ga., April 26.—Two men secreted themselves on a Central of Georgia passenger train last night, and at midnight entered the express car and overpowered and bound the messenger. They secured $4,000. They refused to take a bag of $1,000 in silver.

THESE GOT $10,000. Anacostia, Mont., April 26.—Burglars carried away the safe in the Arcade saloon last night, blew it open and secured $10,000 in cash. They turned the horse back and had the wrecked safe left in the center of the town.

HANGING AT CLINTON. Clinton, Ky., April 26.—Thomas Cole, colored, was hanged in the jail yard here this afternoon. There was an immense crowd outside the enclosure, and about 200 inside. Cole died game, keeping up his bravado to the last. The crime he expiated was the murder of his former mistress, Emma McCorry.

JUDGE BLACK'S LUCK. Frankfort, April 26.—Gov. Beckham will appoint Judge Black, of Barbourville, to succeed Circuit Judge Tinsley, appointed United States district attorney.

SHAW IS SICK. Berlin, April 26.—A dispatch states that the Shaw of Persia is critically ill.

ANOTHER REVOLUTION ENDED. Bogota, Colombia, April 26.—The government accepts peace terms of Gen. Uribe, leader of the insurgents, and the revolution ends.

BUILDING AND LOAN CO. ASSIGNS. Henderson, April 26.—The Henderson Building and Loan association, the oldest in the state, has assigned. There is no schedule of assets and liabilities filed, but it probably owes $17,000.

WRECKED BY DYNAMITE. Brighton, Mich., April 26.—The Baetkes Bank was wrecked by dynamite at daylight this morning and robbed of $4,000.

NOTED DESEPRADO HANGED. Clayton, N. M., April 26.—"Black Jack" Ketchum, the train robber and murderer, was hanged here this afternoon. Before the execution he wrote a letter to President McKinley saying that four men in the Santa Fe jail charged with train robbery are innocent and asks that they be released.

BARN BURNED. MR. H. W. ROTTGERING SUSTAINS A LOSS OF SEVERAL HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Mr. H. W. Rottgering's barn in Rowlandtown was destroyed by fire shortly after noon today.

The blaze is believed to have originated in the boiler room, but the origin is not certain.

The structure was full of hay and farming implements, which were destroyed. All the cattle and horses, however, were saved.

Mr. Rottgering's residence was damaged some, but not much. The loss will be several hundred dollars, partially covered by insurance.

VERY ILL. MR. CHAS. M. LEAKE'S CONDITION IS DANGEROUS.

The many friends of Mr. Charles M. Leake will regret to hear that his condition today is serious. He has not been in good health for the past two or three years, but he recently had an attack of grippe and inflammatory rheumatism, and yesterday was overcome by vertigo, and has since been unconscious much of the time.

This afternoon his condition is regarded as precarious. Mr. Leake is one of Paducah's most popular citizens, and his many friends will wish him a speedy recovery.

THE ELKS

Two Maids of Honor Have Been Appointed for the Flower Parade.

MISS COX AND QUANTE

A Big Delegation Will Come From Paragould, Ark., to the Carnival.

WORK RUSHED IN ALL QUARTERS

The flower parade committee of the Elks carnival are receiving encouraging reports from all quarters. Many have signified their intention of entering the contest, in which only private vehicles will be allowed to compete. No entrance fee is charged. The competition is open to all and free for all. Miss Emma Quante, one of the most beautiful and attractive young ladies of Metropolis, has accepted the invitation to be one of the maids of honor for the flower parade. Miss Quante is well and favorably known in Paducah, and is the first of the maids of honor to be appointed.

Miss Maggie Cox, a popular young lady of Fulton, has been appointed one of the maids of honor for the flower parade. She will doubtless accept. Several other cities are yet to be heard from.

The Red Men of Paragould, Ark., are coming to the carnival in a body. They will probably be several hundred strong, and will arrive Thursday of carnival week.

Mr. S. A. Fowler is arranging for a big naval parade, which will probably take place on the 18th. It will surpass anything ever seen on the Ohio.

The "Two Joes," Joe Blum and Joe Everich, have returned from a bill posting expedition to Dyersburg and way stations. They report that everybody is coming to the carnival.

The ticket takers and "spielers" are to be appointed next week.

Messrs. Joe Blum and Henry Nunn left today for Mound City and Cairo to let loose a little more advertising matter.

Nearly all the concessions have been let. The booth work is progressing rapidly and the work on Court street will soon be finished.

"SQUIRE" PATTON

THE FORMER CONSTABLE WILL QUALIFY AS SOON AS HIS

Commission Comes—Mr. Jesse Young Relinquishes Any Claim to the Position.

The trouble over the appointment of a magistrate in the Seventh district to succeed the late Justice J. H. Little has been amicably settled. As stated yesterday Mr. Jesse S. Young was appointed by County Judge Tully and his bond was accepted.

Mr. Alex Patton, the constable, was appointed by Governor Beckham who issued him a commission.

Mr. Young stated to a reporter this morning that he would make no effort to cause any complications of any kind. "I consider the governor's action final," he said, "and Mr. Patton will qualify." "Mr. Patton stated that he would qualify as soon as Deputy Sheriff Gus Rogers arrives with his commission. He will have his office at Fourth and Court, in Justice Little's old office.

The Underwood case showed that Mr. Thomas M. Underwood and his neighbor, Mr. John C. Breckinridge, had a difficulty at Third and Jackson about two weeks ago, and after Mr. Breckinridge had struck Mr. Underwood several times and broken his nose, the latter cut him in the left side.

The case was dismissed by Judge Sanders.

Attorney Kahn said he would withdraw from the case, and picked up his hat to leave. The court informed him that he would have to proceed with the case or be fined for contempt and sent to jail. The attorney replied that he'd go to jail.

A fine of $3 was assessed for contempt as a starter, and the friends of the attorney expected to see him escorted below to the domain presided over by Leckup Keeper Menifee, but Attorney Kahn very considerably resumed the case. He did it with such grace that the court set aside the fine and the attorney was saved $3.

MARRIED IN ST. LOUIS

MISS FARROW AND MR. HALE SURPRISE THEIR MANY FRIENDS.

Mr. C. S. Farrow today received news of the marriage at St. Louis of his sister, Miss Emma Farrow, of Metropolis, to Mr. Chas. L. Hale, of St. Louis, manager of the Harris and Coal company at Metropolis. The wedding took place at St. Louis day before yesterday. The bride was one of the most attractive young ladies of Metropolis.

Miss Farrow was quite well known in Paducah and Mayfield, where she had often visited. Her marriage was quite a surprise to her friends, who received the first news of it today. She was visiting in St. Louis when they decided to marry.

GRAVES COUNTY WOMAN 'ADJUDGED INSANE AND BROUGHT THROUGH PADUCAH.

Messrs. M. W. and E. W. Franklin, of Graves county, near Wingo, passed through the city this morning en route to Hopkinsville to place the wife of the latter in the asylum. The Messrs. Franklin are twin brothers, over 50 years of age and can hardly be identified apart even by their most intimate friends. Mrs. Franklin is not violent. Her pleadings to be taken home were very touching and many passengers had to change cars as they could not bear to hear her.

SHAFT IS FINISHED. The steamer Dick Fowler's shaft was completed yesterday and shipped from Buffalo, N. Y., today. It will probably arrive here tomorrow.

ALL A MISTAKE.

HE IS NOT THE GIRL WITH THE AUBURN HAIR IN DISGUISE.

Rev. W. S. Gilbert, who claims to be a divine healer, is holding a meeting at Third and Broadway. He is a young man whose chief attractions are his luxuriant red hair and a large stock of egotism, and a great many stop through curiosity to hear what he has to say. He avers he could be pastor of any church in the United States if he wanted to. But naturally he prefers street corner engagements.

Rev. Gilbert says he is going to have things going his way in Paducah before very long. "The properties" of his show consist of a small platform, a chair, a bible and another book or two.

A DAILY THOUGHT.

However much our desire may be for ease, our real happiness is in activity.—Whipple.

THE SUNDAY CHAT.

The next issue of the Sunday Chat will contain a wealth of good things for local people and should go into every home in the city.

The success of the paper has been one of the most surprising, as well as pleasing, things with which The Sun management has had connection. The circulation has grown, and is growing, at a great rate and has far surpassed all expectations.

An article of interest—of especial interest to the labor men, will be one of the many good features the publishers offer the patrons in the next issue. It is an article on union labor and was written for The Sunday Chat by one of the most enthusiastic and best posted union men in the city. The other special features will be up to The Chat standard. The social news, the literary news, the picture features, all will be splendid. Dr. H. G. Enlow, too, has written an article for The Chat that will be appreciated by every one in the city. It is his impressions of Paducah, our pride. If you are not a subscriber you must send in your name at once. You cannot afford to miss Sunday's issue.

The Gobel organs that have felt so mortally offended because former Gov. Mount, of Indiana refused to turn Gov. W. S. Taylor over to the Democrats of Kentucky, have had little to say about the action of Gov. McMillin, of Tennessee, who refused to give up an alleged murderer on a requisition from Texas. There is of course some difference in the cases, but the principle of a governor exercising his discretion is the same. Says the Lexington Herald on the subject: We are confident that Gov. Sayres would not make such a demand unless he believed it ought to be granted. We are equally confident that Gov. McMillin would not refuse such a demand unless he believed it ought to be refused; and this illustrates the necessity for gubernatorial discretion. The constitution provides that fugitives from justice shall be surrendered upon demand of the governor of the state from which he is a fugitive to the governor of the state in which he is found; but neither governor is compelled to act except according to his official discretion. Every governor must exercise his official discretion before he will issue such a demand. The governor upon whom the demand is made must exercise his official discretion before he decides what answer he will make to the demand. It is a most delicate and disagreeable duty for a governor to issue a warrant of arrest to extradite a fellow citizen and transport him beyond the territorial jurisdiction of his own state, to be tried in a distant state before a strange tribunal; and he ought not to do it unless he feels himself bound so to act. On the other hand, if he does not so feel he can not refuse. And this has been the recognized construction of this constitutional provision since the formation of the constitution, and will continue to be so long as states are sovereign and independent and the governors are fit to be chief magistrates.

It is probable that McCracken county will soon have free rural delivery. One of the conditions conducive to free rural delivery is good roads. Routes are established on the strength of petitions signed by the heads of families in the districts traversed but there must be good roads. There seems to be a demand for the system in the surrounding counties. Next July the rural free delivery will be enlarged by the establishment of new routes and the extension of old ones, and for this purpose congress has appropriated $3,500,000. No route can be less than twenty miles in length and not less than one hundred families can be served. Each resident must provide a box of accepted design near the highway, and the box will be duly protected by federal statute. Registered or special delivery letters or pension remittances are delivered. No petition for the free delivery is considered unless the roads are in good condition, hence the system has done much and will do more, towards the improvement of public roads.

Two magistrates have been appointed to fill the vacancy in the Seventh district occasioned by the death of Justice J. H. Little. County Judge J. C. Tully appointed Mr. Jesse S. Young under the following statute enacted in 1891: No. 1527, Justice of the peace. Who to issue writ: A vacancy in the office of justice of the peace shall be filled by the appointment of the county court, temporarily, until the successor shall have been elected, as provided in section 1522 of this article, and shall have qualified; and a writ of election shall be issued as provided in the preceding section. Gov. Beckham appointed Mr. Alex. Patton, the constable, under a statute passed February 10, 1894, amending the statute above and providing that the governor shall fill all such vacancies by appointment. In the last issue of the court of appeals decisions, April 15, is a decision in a case exactly similar, styled Daugherty, Judge, against Arnold, from Elkton. Governor Bradley appointed a magistrate to fill a vacancy, and the appointment was contested. The court decided that only the governor has the power to fill such vacancies. Hence the appointment of Mr. Patton will stand.

It is believed that Princeton, Ky., has a fire bug, which moves the editor of the Chronicle to remark: "If there is a biped dog, or a vicious monster, a canny devil in human form in the city responsible for the fires we have had here of late years, he, it or they ought to be bound and roasted for three hours over a slow fire as could be controlled in a coal oil tank. You may talk of potato bugs, chinch bugs, bed-bugs, silver bugs, gold bugs, and humbugs, but the most consummately damnable bug ever yet afflicting a community is the fire bug. Let it be exterminated, by its own brands cremated!" The fire bug, when he sees that, will doubtless feel sufficiently roasted without the coal oil fire and other luxurious tortures suggested.

It seems that some of the anti-temperance as well as the temperance people can do a little smashing when things don't go to suit them. As a shining example is the concern of the McMinn Citizen, at Athens, Tenn., which has been reduced to a state of pi by an indignant anti-temperance element which became enraged at some of the editorial utterances of the paper. Mrs. Nation should look to her laurels.

The Elks carnival will be all that is expected. Those who have time should visit the proposed site and see how the booths are rapidly appearing, and the vast quantity of lumber that is being used. Bill posters have been out in every direction, and without a doubt the crowd will be the greatest ever witnessed here.

Vesuvius is in eruption, a new comet has been sighted, Italy is having earthquakes and Mrs. Nation is in jail. With such important matters as these, the Boer war, the Chinese vanderbilt show and the Philippine question have lost their significance entirely in the daily press.

The city is building a park in the West End. It is to be hoped that it will equal in attractiveness the beautiful and well kept ornament that surrounds the county court house and is named after a distinguished ex-mayor who doubtless feels proud of it.

The Louisville baseball club starts out as if it is fully determined to maintain Louisville's splendid record of the past few years as a center of the most unique baseball failures ever known.

Deputy United States Marshal La Rue continues to exhibit marvelous signs of activity, for a man who has "had his head cut off."

SOUTHWEST KENTUCKY BOYS. Two young men from Southwest Kentucky have received class honors. Everett Butler, of Livingston county, has been elected class valedictorian of the graduating class of 1901, in the law department of Cherry Bros. college at Bowling Green, and T. A. Perry, of Chittenden county, has been selected salutatorian.

The next edition of The Sunday Chat will be as good as the preceding ones and you must not fail to get it.

FOR A CHILD

who is "not doing well"—the condition occurs now and then with all children.

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil is a food that begins to build you up at once—of course, it don't show at once. "Not doing well" means that the child is not getting the good of his food. Not today, or this week; it may have been going on for a month; before it begins to show in the child's condition.

You want him to get back to turning his usual food into strength.

You want the food that begins to build, up at once. We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

WHEN PADUCAH JOINS.

A Writer in the Lexington Herald Gives Some Interesting Points About Second Class Cities.

Mr. R. J. O'Mahony, in yesterday's Lexington Herald, writes of the proposed advancement of Paducah into the second class. He says:

A Paducah dispatch says: "The census shows 21,435, but Mayor Lang states that he had authoritative information that the circuit judgewould not make the transfer of Paducah to the second class, and the movement will be abandoned until next January, when the legislature meets."

The intelligence conveyed in this dispatch has been expected by those who have been watching the growth of Western Kentucky, and the probability of Paducah asking to be admitted to cities of the second class has been discussed by persons interested in municipal matters. When Paducah's ambition shall be gratified, Lexington will find herself in municipal harness with another city, whose interests it will be difficult to reconcile with hers. The present charter of cities of the second class contains provisions much more suitable to Newport and Covington than to Lexington, whose growth demands changes in this charter, to which, it seems, it is almost impossible to obtain the agreement of the Ohio river cities, with which she is municipally bound. The addition of Paducah to the list is feared will make things worse.

PADUCAH AND LEXINGTON. But Paducah will have troubles of her own. She will be torn with dissensions when the question of municipal elections comes up. The trouble that arose over the election of Mayor of Lexington, in 1893 and 1894, is likely to be reproduced in the capital of "The Purchase."

Under the constitution, Mayor H. L. Duncan was elected in 1893, supposedly with a term of four years. In 1894, the legislature enacted the charter of cities of the second class, which provided for another election in 1895. In the bill as it was originally drawn, the election of mayor was set for 1897; but this was opposed by Senator John O. Hodges, who insisted that there should be an election in 1895, when the governor and other state officers were elected. Governor Brown accepted the views of Senator Hodges, and refused to approve a bill that did not provide for an election of mayor in 1895. The change in the date of the election for mayor was made to accord with the views of his excellency and so the charter was passed and became a law. Mayor Duncan went to the courts, insisting that he was entitled to a four-year term under the constitutional provision governing election of municipal officers by the people. The case went to the court of appeals, where it was decided adversely to Mr. Duncan's contention.

ELECTION IN OTHER CITIES. The oddity about the date of the election for mayor in cities of the second class is that it differs from all the other cities. The charter of cities of the first class provides that the election shall take place on the first Tuesday in November, in 1893, and every four years thereafter. The charter of cities of the third class provides, (Sec. 3461 of the Kentucky statutes:) "All officers elected by popular vote

MANAGER ENGLISH.

THE NEW YORK PAPERS CONTINUE TO TALK ABOUT THE PADUCAHAN.

The New York Dramatic News of April 27, contains a cartoon of Manager J. E. English, of The Kentucky, who is now here looking shows, and says: It must be nice to be "it"—from the looks of James E. English as he appeared to our artist while strolling down Broadway, and smilingly thought of the handsome and extensive profits daily rolling in while Murray and Mack are "Shooting the Chutes" and enjoying visions of the additional profits that will accrue when that swell new theater "The Kentucky" opens its doors down in Paducah. He is evidently "it" and The Kentucky—"that's it." Our artists secured Mr. English in his handsomest attitude. It is regretted the cartoon cannot be here reproduced, for Mr. English's friends would like to see him as he appears in New York.

The Sun and Chat only 15 cents a week.

under this charter, shall be elected at the regular election in November, 1893, and hereafter, as their terms of office shall expire or their offices become vacant. The charter of cities of the first class became a law July 1, 1893, that of cities of the third class June 28, 1893, that of the fourth class July 8, 1893, and that of the fifth class July 1, 1893. The last class is governed by trustees. The fifth class provides for the election of a mayor in 1893, and the fourth class for election or appointment ordinance, but if elected, then the election must be held according to the provisions of the constitution.

The charter of cities of the second class was the last to be enacted and as stated, was enacted into a law in 1894. Why Lexington, Covington and Newport should have been made exceptions to the rule as to the date of the elections of their municipal officers is difficult to understand except upon the hypothesis that they could be better taken care of in the general election for state officers.

PADUCAH'S PRESENT POSITION. Paducah, under her present charter, for cities of the third class, should hold an election this year, the term of the mayor elected in 1893, expiring in January, 1902. But if she comes into the second class she will not be entitled to hold a regular election until 1903, except to fill a vacancy, which shall continue until an election is had.

If an election shall be had this year and next year, Paducah shall be promoted to the second class, the trouble will begin. EXTEND MAYOR'S TERM. Just here the question naturally arises why should not the elections in cities of the second class be made to conform to the date of the elections in cities of the other classes? Why should they remain exceptions to the rule? The probability of Paducah coming into the second class suggests the propriety of asking the legislature to change the date of the next regular election for mayors of that class of cities from 1902 to 1905. The lengthening of the term would matter little, although it happens that in the case of the mayor of Lexington, it would be only giving him now what he was deprived of in 1895. Mayor Duncan has discussed this subject with his friends, for he has been acquainted for some time with the movement in Paducah. He highly favors a change in the law, so as to make municipal elections throughout the state uniform as to time; but while he is aware that the terms of the present mayors of the second class might be lengthened as mayors serve until their successors are elected and qualified, he would be quite willing to step down and out, and allow some other citizen to fill the vacancy at the election in 1903, to serve until the election in 1905.

This matter is one that will naturally come to the front and be the subject of legislation in one direction or another when Paducah comes into line as a second class city, and, will certainly be considered by the next general assembly. It is reasonable to believe that the people of Lexington will also view the question with some interest.

SPECIAL MUSIC.

TONIGHT TEMPLE ISRAEL WILL BE CROWDED TO HEAR

Dr. Enlow—A Musical Program of Many Features Will Be Rendered—His Farewell Sermon.

The service this evening at Temple Israel will prove unusually interesting inasmuch as it will be Rabbi Enlow's farewell to his congregation. Mr. Enlow is very popular not only among his own people, but he is general favorite in Paducah. It is with great regret that his congregation part with him, but their best wishes will follow him to his larger field and they rejoice at the honor that is conferred upon him.

The music will be attractive and the choir will be reinforced with capable vocalists. The sweet and sympathetic voice of the popular tenor, Mr. Will F. Minnich and Mr. Emmet S. Bagby's rich baritone will add not a little to the artistic rendition of the fine program. Public cordially invited. Services promptly at 7:30 and the following musical numbers will be rendered:

Organ prelude—A. "Fantasia in F"—Gonold-Eddy. b. [Fugue in C—Krebs-Eddy. Anthem—"I Will Extol Thee"—L. Lambillotte. Ritualistic music from Selessinger. Solo—"I Will Extol Thee"—Soloist, Miss Poet—M. Costa. Solo—"Sing to Jehovah"—Arranged from Verdi especially for and rendered by Mrs. Jas. Weille. Anthem—"Mighty Jehovah"—Vincenzo Bellini. Postlude—Angelo Rossi.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It gets directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J.
